Our Remuneration

The method of remuneration for our services to our clients is either in the form of a proportion of the insurance contract premium (known as the commission or brokerage) or a fee or a combination of both.

We operate a policy of full disclosure as required by the Insurance Act 2000.

Our current Fee Structure is: Private Motor: Annual Policy Fee €50 with €20 for any subsequent alterations. Household Policy: Annual Policy Fee €30 with €20 for any subsequent alterations. Affinity Schemes Annual Policy Fee €30 with €20 for any subsequent alterations. All Other Products: In some cases no brokerage fee will be charged, however, in other cases it will be necessary to charge a brokerage fee per transaction. We reserve the right to charge a minimum annual fee of €250 per policy. In any case, the amount of any fee will be clearly shown on the invoice/renewal notice.

Conflict of Interest

We will seek to avoid conflicts of interest but where this is unavoidable we will explain the position fully and manage the situation in such a way as to avoid prejudice to any party. If a conflict arises for which there is no practical solution, we will withdraw unless you wish us to continue to act for you and provide us with your written consent to that effect.

Default or Remedies

Fingal Insurance Group collects premiums for onward transmission to insurers. In the event that such premiums are not paid, insurers are entitled to, and may, cancel cover. It is therefore critical to the continuance of your insurance cover that your premium is paid in full and strictly in line with your credit terms. Should such default occur insurers may apply short period (higher) premiums or cancel cover ab-initio.

Central Bank of Ireland regulations mean that Fingal Insurance Group may not pay to insurers, premiums from our client premium accounts which have not been paid to us. When paying premiums you must specify the policy (or policies) to which the payment applies. In the absence of your specific instructions, we reserve the right to allocate the payment against any outstanding premium. If you prefer any other method of allocation, please advise us. We may take legal action to recover any fees due to us for services provided.

Warranties

All insurance contracts contain conditions which impose obligations on the policyholder. It is important that you read and understand your policies. If in addition, the insurers impose warranties we will bring these to your attention. A warranty must be complied with literally. In some instances insurers apply premium payment warranties which mean the insurer's obligations under the policy will be automatically terminated or a claim not paid. If you cannot comply with the terms of any warranty, please advise us immediately.

Duty to Disclose Information

It is your responsibility to provide complete and accurate information for insurers when arranging an insurance policy, throughout the life of that policy, and when you are renewing it. It is important you ensure that all information provided and all statements made on proposal forms, claim forms and other documents are, to your knowledge and belief, complete and accurate. Failure to disclose any material information to your insurers could invalidate your insurance cover and could mean that all or part of a claim will not be paid.

Market Security

We use both local and international insurers/markets to obtain the best terms and conditions available. In selecting an insurer, a wide variety of factors are taken into account including whether an insurer has a solvency or credit rating. We do not, and cannot, guarantee the financial security of any insurer. If you have any concerns about the security offered, please contact us immediately.

Claims

It is essential that we are notified immediately of any claims or circumstances which could give rise to a claim. When you notify us, you must include all material facts concerning the claim. The policy wordings will describe in detail the procedures and conditions in connection with making a claim. It should be noted that there is no cover for defence costs incurred without insurer's prior consent.

Retention of Documentation

We will maintain records of the insurance contract(s) we arrange on your behalf. We will automatically destroy these records after specified periods unless you ask us to do otherwise. We are happy to provide this service free of charge for as long as we remain your broker.

Feedback

We value client feedback on the quality of our services. If you would like to comment on the service or suggest areas for improvement, call us at 01 8404012.
